1.8 Academic Advising:

Academic advising is available to students throughout teaching periods including the exam weeks. As well as requesting help during scheduled class times, students have the following options:

Consultation times: A list of consultation hours is provided on the homepage of Moodle where appointments can be booked.

Subject coordinator: Subject coordinators are available for contact via email. The email address of the subject coordinator is provided at the top of this subject outline.

Academic staff: Lecturers and Tutors provide their contact details in Moodle for the specific subject. In most cases, this will be via email. Some subjects may also provide a discussion forum where questions can be raised.

Head of Program: The Head of Program is available to all students in the program if they need advice about their studies and KOI procedures.

Vice President (Academic): The Vice President (Academic) will assist students to resolve complex issues (but may refer students to the relevant lecturers for detailed academic advice).

2. Academic Details

2.1 Overview of the Subject

This elective subject builds on TSL700 Language Teaching Methodologies to explore the importance of culture in language teaching and learning and encourages students to develop their skills in intercultural literacy and communication. The subject also explores the causes and effects of the global spread of English and the implications of English being both a global and a local language in many parts of the world.

2.2 Graduate Attributes for Postgraduate Courses

Graduates of the Graduate Certificate of TESOL, the Graduate Diploma of TESOL and the Master of Arts (TESOL) courses from King's Own Institute will achieve the graduate attributes expected from successful completion of a Master's degree under the Australian Qualifications Framework (2nd edition, January 2013). Graduates at this level will be able to apply an advanced body on knowledge in a range of contexts for professional practice or scholarship and as a pathway for further learning.

King's Own Institute's generic graduate attributes for a master's level degree are summarised below:

| | KOI Master's Degree Graduate Attributes | Detailed Description |
|---|--|---|
| | Knowledge | Current, comprehensive and coherent knowledge, including recent developments and applied research methods |
| - | Critical Thinking | Critical thinking skills to identify and analyse current theories and developments and emerging trends in professional practice |
| | Communication | Communication and technical skills to analyse and theorise, contribute to professional practice or scholarship, and present ideas to a variety of audiences |
| | Research and Information Literacy | Cognitive and technical skills to access and evaluate information resources, justify research approaches and interpret theoretical propositions |

Success in Higher Education

| A Y | Creative Problem Solving Skills | Cognitive, technical and creative skills to investigate, analyse and synthesise complex information, concepts and theories, solve complex problems and apply established theories to situations in professional practice | |
|-----|-------------------------------------|---|--|
| | Ethical and Cultural Sensitivity | Appreciation and accountability for ethical principles, cultural sensitivity and social responsibility, both personally and professionally | |
| | Leadership and Strategy | Initiative, leadership skills and ability to work professionally and collaboratively to achieve team objectives across a range of team roles Expertise in strategic thinking, developing and implementing business plans and decision making under uncertainty | |
| | Professional Skills | High level personal autonomy, judgement, decision-making and accountability required to begin professional practice | |

Across the course, these skills are developed progressively at three levels:

- Level 1 Foundation Students learn the skills, theories and techniques of the subject and apply them in stand-alone contexts
- Level 2 Intermediate Students further develop skills, theories and techniques of the subject and apply them in more complex contexts, beginning to integrate the application with other subjects.
- Level 3 Advanced Students have a demonstrated ability to plan, research and apply the skills, theories and techniques of the subject in complex situations, integrating the subject content with a range of other subject disciplines within the context of the course.

2.3 Subject Learning Outcomes

Listed below, are key knowledge and skills students are expected to attain by successfully completing this subject:

| Subject Learning Outcomes | Contribution to Graduate Attributes | |
|--|-------------------------------------|--|
| a. Critically review the literature on intercultural communication and apply the principles in the teaching context, including questions of genres, methodologies and evaluation | | |
| b. Develop awareness of skills for successful intercultural communication | | |
| c. Discuss the spread of English and concepts such as linguistic imperialism, language rights, English as a global language, language varieties, pidgins, creoles and lingua franca. | A-D-Y-V-V- Q | |

2.5 Teaching Methods/Strategies

Briefly described below are the teaching methods/strategies used in this subject:

- Lectures (2 hours/week) are conducted in seminar style and address the subject content, provide motivation and context and draw on the students' experience and preparatory reading.
- Tutorials (1 hours/week) include class discussion of case studies and research papers, practice sets and problem-solving and syndicate work on group projects. Tutorials often include group exercises and so contribute to the development of teamwork skills and cultural understanding. Tutorial participation is an essential component of the subject and contributes to the development of many of the graduate attributes (see section 2.2 above). Tutorial participation contributes towards the assessment in many subjects (see details in Section 3.1 for this subject). Supplementary tutorial material such as case studies, recommended readings, review questions etc. will be made available each week in Moodle.
- Online teaching resources include class materials, readings, model answers to assignments and exercises and discussion boards. All online materials for this subject as provided by KOI will be found in the Moodle page for this subject. Students should access Moodle regularly as material may be updated at any time during the trimester
- Other contact academic staff may also contact students either via Moodle messaging, or via email to the email address provided to KOI on enrolment.

2.6 Student Assessment

Provided below is a schedule of formal assessment tasks and major examinations for the subject.
